

Christopher Chapman, CFA

Senior Investment Analyst
Manulife Asset Management

Christopher Chapman, CFA, is a senior investment analyst on the Global Multi-Sector Fixed Income Team at Manulife Asset Management. He is responsible for global sovereign debt and currency research, portfolio construction and risk management for the company's global multi-sector fixed income strategies. Prior to this position, Chris worked in several other areas of the firm, most recently as an investment risk analyst on the Quantitative Research Team. He began his career at State Street Bank. Chris is a CFA charterholder and a member of the Boston Security Analysts Society.

Education: Stonehill College, BSBA in Management, 1999; Boston College, MSF, 2003

Joined Company: 2005

Began Career: 1999